Christine Reda hired as Human Resources Coordinator

Geauga County – Nov. 21, 2016 – Geauga County Public Library is pleased to announce that Christine Reda has been hired as the Human Resources Coordinator. In this new position, Ms. Reda will be responsible for ensuring compliance with employment laws, directing human resources functions for the library, administering benefit directives, managing orientation, developing programs that enhance employee relations, revising and maintaining the employee handbook, mediating employee relation issues and other staffing-related duties.

Ms. Reda most recently worked at Technical Consumer Products in Aurora for nine years as the Human Resources Manager, acting as recruiter who also presided over orientation and onboarding. She provided and monitored leave requests, stayed current on worker's compensation law and presented information to the staff, ensured job description exemption status and handled many other HR issues.

She also worked at DeepGreen Financial in Highland Hills as a Human Resources Generalist; National City Corporation and MCGiX Corporation as a Human Resources Generalist; and Cleveland State University as an HR Office Assistant.

Ms. Reda holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in labor relations and human relations from Cleveland State University. She was the president of the Cleveland State University SHRM Chapter, 1999-2000 and is HRCI certified as a senior professional in human resources SPHR since 2007.

"Bringing a human resources position to GCPL is an important step in ensuring that library policies and procedures comply with all legal provisions," says GCPL Director Ed Worso. "Christine has impressive experience in an area that we have identified as needing attention. We welcome her expertise and professionalism."

Ms. Reda resides in Ravenna with her husband, Patrick.
