

Geauga County Public Library
Operating Policy Manual

SECTION: MEETING ROOMS – SPECIAL RULES
NUMBER: 557
EFFECTIVE DATE: February 10, 2009

Each library maintains a calendar listing of confirmed meeting dates which is available to the public.

Minors may reserve and use meeting rooms as long as they can meet all meeting room requirements.

The playing of games including electronic games is an appropriate meeting room activity. The Library does not restrict the content of games played in meeting rooms. For minors, the Library encourages parents to make such determinations of participation and so instruct their children.

The name, address or phone number of Geauga County Public Library and its individual libraries may not be used as the official address or headquarters of any organization except those affiliated with the Library.

The Library cannot supply storage space (See Policy 561).

Preschool children cannot be left unattended outside meeting rooms or other areas of the library. (See Policy 952).

Restrooms are available at all times. (See Policy 563).
