Newbury Library Station invites community to open house

Tour GCPL's newest space, enjoy refreshments, games, giveaways and more

Geauga County – March 9, 2016 – Newbury Library Station is celebrating its new, expanded location with an open house, and is inviting the community to partake in the festivities.

Date: Saturday, April 2

Time: 1 – 3 p.m., dedication at 2 p.m.

Place: Newbury Library Station, inside Newbury Auditorium building (14775 Auburn Road / Newbury).

Cost: Free, no registration required

“The Newbury Library station serves an important area of Geauga County,” says GCPL Director Ed Worso. “A lot of hard work went into the move and we are extremely proud of our new space. Patrons may enjoy an expanded collection in comfortable surroundings. We are happy to invite the community to our open house to celebrate.”

Guests are invited to tour the new library space, play games, enjoy refreshments and pick up a giveaway. The library has comfortable chairs for reading and relaxing, a designated children’s area, high-speed Internet connections, new furniture and shelves, and stronger WiFi. The same dedicated staff will be there to greet and help you. Our entrance is on the south side of the building. Just follow the signs. See you there!

About the Geauga County Public Library

The Geauga County Public Library includes four full-service community libraries in Bainbridge, Chardon, Chesterland (Geauga West) and Middlefield; two library stations housed in schools in Newbury and Thompson; one Bookmobile that serves farms, nursing homes and nursery schools; a Lobby Stop vehicle; and one administrative center where technical services, computer services, facilities and administrative functions reside. GCPL holds more than 500,000 books and e-books. The collection also contains more than 100,000 audio / video items and 400 research databases available through its website. GCPL is a member of the SearchOhio / OhioLINK consortium, giving patrons access to more than 66 million items.
