GCPL offers preschool expo at Bainbridge Township Hall

Parents are invited to meet local preschools, ask questions, and gather information to help make an informed decision for their children's early education

Geauga County – Dec. 3, 2018 – Parents looking for their children's first school will want to attend GCPL's preschool expo. This event invites parents to drop in and meet several Bainbridge, Chagrin Falls, and Aurora-area preschools, learn the merits of each preschool in one convenient location, and gather the information to make a well-versed decision. Representatives from each school will be on hand to present information and answer questions. Attendees will be entered into a drawing to win a raffle basket. This free event is sponsored by Geauga County Public Library's Bainbridge Branch.

"Early literacy is a cornerstone of GCPL's mission," says Mary Balog, Head of Youth Services at GCPL's Bainbridge Branch. "Libraries and schools are natural partners. We wanted to provide a service to help a shared audience – parents of our youngest students and early readers. We encourage parents of preschool-age children to attend this event and learn about different preschool options in this part of Geauga County."

About the Geauga County Public Library

The Geauga County Public Library includes four full-service branches in Bainbridge, Chardon, Chesterland (Gauga West) and Middlefield, two library stations housed in schools in Newbury and Thompson, and a Mobile Services fleet that serves rural areas and community centers.
