Use your GCPL card for one free Geauga Family YMCA admission between Feb. 14 - 28

Geauga County – Feb. 4, 2019 – GCPL and Geauga Family YMCA are teaming up to encourage both physical activity and reading during “Love Your Library Month.” From Feb. 14 – 28, patrons can show their library cards at the YMCA’s 12460 Bass Lake Road location for a free admission. One free admission per card per person during this period.

No library card? No problem! Simply visit any GCPL branch, fill out a card application and head to the YMCA. Enjoy the swimming pool, hot tub, sauna, pickle ball, basketball, and other offerings. When you’re finished with your workout, curl up in a cozy chair next to your fireplace and read a good book.

About the Geauga County Public Library

The Geauga County Public Library includes four full-service branches in Bainbridge, Chardon, Chesterland (Geauga West) and Middlefield, two library stations housed in schools in Newbury and Thompson, and a Mobile Services fleet that serves rural areas and community centers. Its administrative center is located in Chardon, where technical services, computer services, facilities and administrative functions reside. GCPL houses more than 750,000 books and digital books. The collection also contains more than 100,000 audio / video items. About 75 research databases are available via its website. GCPL is a member of the Clevnet consortium, giving patrons access to more than 12 million items. Learn more about the Geauga County Public Library at the GCPL website, GeaugaLibrary.net.
