Mini Golf at GCPL's Geauga West Branch transforms stacks into greens

Geauga County Library Foundation's annual fundraiser supports literacy

Geauga County – February 22, 2019 – Fore! Join fellow library patrons and staff members for a round of indoor golf at the GCPL Links at the Geauga West Branch, where the entire building is converted into an 18-hole golf course for one special day of fun for the whole family. This annual event is the principal fundraiser for the Geauga County Library Foundation.

What: Family event / fundraiser – 18 holes of indoor mini golf, plus a 19th kiddie hole
Time: 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Date: Sun., March 10
Place: Geauga West Branch (13455 Chillicothe Road, Chesterland)
Cost: $5 per person
Tickets are available for purchase at all GCPL locations, and at the door.

In addition to golfing, attendees can enjoy photo ops with Slider, face painting, balloon twisting, a prize auction, and a special kiddie hole for preschoolers.

Proceeds from the mini golf event support library programs that encourage families to read every day, at every age. Among these are: Baby's First Book (for newborns and their parents at UH Geauga Medical Center), Early Literacy Kits (books with related toys and activities for preschoolers are available to check out from every library), Books and Bears (Kindergarteners throughout the county receive an age-appropriate book along with a teddy bear and a library card), and 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten (to help families foster a love for reading in their young children and create solid early literacy practices). Money raised also provides funds for adult enrichment such as the Northcoast Writers' Showcase (best-selling author speakers), the 100 Book Challenge (adults that read 100 books in two years receive fleece jacket), and countywide events that promote reading and writing.

This event coincides with the Chesterland Kiwanis' pancake breakfast held at the West Geauga Middle School. Feel free to enjoy a delicious breakfast at the school, then walk across the parking lot to burn off a few calories while playing golf. Or, just come to the library ready to sink your shots.

This event is made possible by the generous funding of University Hospitals and all our sponsors. To contribute, or for more information about the Foundation, email foundation@geaugalibrary.net.
