Operating Policy Manual

SECTION: SALE OF EXCESS LIBRARY MATERIALS, EQUIPMENT
AND FURNISHINGS
NUMBER: 796
EFFECTIVE DATE: DECEMBER 17, 2019

The Director or his/her designee is authorized by the board to dispose of library materials, furniture, or equipment that staff have determined is no longer functional or useful. The Director may sell or discard such items, or, when an item cannot be readily or practicably sold by the library, may give such items to an organization or governmental unit. That organization or governmental unit's mission must be in line with the mission of the library, and preference is given to qualifying agencies serving residents of the library's service area.

If an item of surplus inventory is believed by the director or fiscal officer to have unusual, historic, or artistic value such items may be referred to the board for determination of value; that evaluation process may require the services of a professional appraiser or outside expert opinion.

Discarded library materials may be given to the Friends and other appropriate non-profit organizations to sell in book sales organized by these groups. The proceeds of these sales may be donated back to the libraries to enhance programs, services and special projects.
